

Early role-token state causally transfers held-out behavior

A User state → assistant prompt
Expected effect: increase

B Assistant state → user prompt
Expected effect: suppression

Natural: full residual state from the opposite role at the aligned embedded role token. Random: norm-matched control.